Do you enjoy technology, agriculture, learning new things, and DRONES? Then Precision Ag Day is the event for you. We invite you to come out and learn all about new, up and coming advancements in agriculture. You'll get to experience topics like Climate Field View Technology with Robert Hammock and Using Drones in Precision Agriculture with Bob Waring and Kenny Kroeger. James River Equipment and Hooper companies are even coming out to show you all about their Sprayer and Plant Technologies. The event includes lunch and will conclude with a Precision Ag Mapping presentation based on yields and soil samples presented by Paul Davis and Jim Wallace.

Precision Ag Day is taking place Wednesday, August 15th at the Virginia Public Safety Training Center (7093 Broad Neck Road Hanover, VA 23069) from 9am – 3pm.
